

PRESCHOOL PALS

An intensive program for preschool aged children in the July School Holidays.

This group will run for 5 consecutive mornings in the July school holidays (1 $\frac{1}{2}$ hours per day).

The goals of the group will be to support and facilitate successful individual participation and group experiences. Aims for this group include better self-organisation, making new friends, handling feelings and emotions, and negotiating conflicts.

Activities may include; sensory-motor based play, gross and fine motor activities, music time and story time.

Applications close on Friday 27th May, 2011. An application does not guarantee a place, as group sizes are limited
